In order for your Article to be distributed as widely as possible in UroToday International Journal, you grant Digital Science Press, Inc. an exclusive license to publish the above Article on behalf of the UroToday International Journal including the abstract in electronic form, in all languages, and to administer subsidiary rights agreements with third parties for the full period of copyright and all renewals, extensions, revisions and revivals. The Article is deemed to include all material submitted for publication with the exception of Letters, and includes the text, figures, tables, author contact details, and all supplementary material accompanying the Article.

Please read this form carefully, sign at the bottom (if your employer owns copyright in your work, arrange for your employer to sign where marked), and return the ORIGINAL to the address below as quickly as possible. As author, you remain the copyright owner of the Article, unless copyright is owned by your employer. (US Federal Government authors please note: your Article is in the public domain.)

Your Article will not be published unless a License Form has been signed and received by UroToday International Journal.

Please note: You retain the following rights to reuse the Article, as long as you do not sell or reproduce the Article or any part of it for commercial purposes (i.e., for monetary gain on your own account or on that of a third party, or for indirect financial gain by a commercial entity). These rights apply without needing to seek permission from Digital Science Press, Inc.

- Prior to acceptance: We ask that as part of the publishing process you acknowledge that the Article has been submitted to the Journal. You will not prejudice acceptance if you use the unpublished Article, in form and content as submitted for publication in the Journal, in the following ways:
 - o sharing print or electronic copies of the Article with colleagues;
 - o posting an electronic version of the Article on your own personal website, on your employer's website/repository and on free public servers in your subject area.

- After acceptance: Provided that you give appropriate acknowledgement to UroToday International Journal and Digital Science Press, Inc. and full bibliographic reference for the Article when it is published, you may use the accepted version of the Article as originally submitted for publication in the Journal, and updated to include any amendments made after peer review, in the following ways:
 - o you may share print or electronic copies of the Article with colleagues;
 - o you may use all or part of the Article and abstract, without revision or modification, in personal compilations or other publications of your own work;
 - o you may use the Article within your employer's institution or company for educational or research purposes, including use in course packs;
 - o 12 months after publication you may post an electronic version of the Article on your own personal website, on your employer's website/repository and on free public servers in your subject area. Electronic versions of the accepted Article must include a link to the published version of the Article together with the following text: 'The definitive version is available at www.urotodayinternationaljournal.com'.

Please note that you are not permitted to post the Digital Science Press, Inc. PDF version of the Article online.

All requests by third parties to reuse the Article in whole or in part will be handled by Digital Science Press, Inc. Any permission fees will be retained by the Journal. All requests to adapt substantial parts of the Article in another publication will be subject to your approval (which is deemed to be given if we have not heard from you within 4 weeks of seeking your approval by writing to you at your last notified address). Please address any queries to journaloffice@urotodayinternationaljournal.com.

In signing this Agreement:

1. You hereby warrant that this Article is an original work, has not been published before, and is not being considered for publication elsewhere in its final form either in printed or electronic form;
2. You hereby warrant that you have obtained permission from the copyright holder to reproduce in the Article (in all media including print and electronic form) material not owned by you, and that you have acknowledged the source;
3. You hereby warrant that this Article contains no violation of any existing copyright or other third party right or any material of an obscene, indecent, libelous or otherwise unlawful nature and that to the best of your knowledge this Article does not infringe the rights of others;
4. You hereby warrant that in the case of a multi-authored Article you have obtained, in writing, authorization to enter into this Agreement on their behalf and that all co-authors have read and agreed the terms of this Agreement;
5. You warrant that any formula or dosage given is accurate and will not, if properly followed, injure any person;
6. You will indemnify and keep indemnified the Editors/UroToday International Journal and Digital Science Press, Inc. against all claims and expenses (including legal costs and expenses) arising from any breach of this warranty and the other warranties on your behalf in this Agreement.

By signing this Agreement you agree that Digital Science Press, Inc. may arrange for the Article to be:

- Published in the above Journal and sold or distributed, on its own, or with other related material;
- Published in multi-contributor book form or other edited compilations by Digital Science Press, Inc.;
- Reproduced and/or distributed (including the abstract) throughout the world in printed, electronic or any other medium whether now known or hereafter devised, in all languages, and to authorize third parties (including Reproduction Rights Organizations) to do the same;
- You agree to Digital Science Press, Inc. using any images from the Article on the cover of the Journal, and in any marketing material.

You authorize Digital Science Press, Inc. to act on your behalf to defend the copyright in the Article if anyone should infringe it, although there is no obligation on Digital Science Press, Inc. to act in this way.

As the Author, copyright in the Article remains in your name (or your employer's name if your employer owns copyright in your work).

Digital Science Press, Inc. undertakes that every copy of the Article published by Digital Science Press, Inc. will include the full bibliographic reference for your Article, together with the copyright statement.

BOX A: to be completed if copyright belongs to you

BOX B: to be completed if copyright belongs to your employer (e.g., HMSO, CSIRO)

The copyright holder grants Digital Science Press, Inc. an exclusive license to publish the Article including the abstract in printed and electronic form, in all languages, and to administer subsidiary rights agreements with third parties for the full period of copyright and all renewals, extensions, revisions and revivals.
